Hello,

A while back, there were quite a few posts on this list concerning the story "Suzanne Delage". I hadn't read it in years and in fact had forgotten the story itself, so I skipped those messages.

Last week I uncovered it and read it, and now I'm wondering what it was that was being discussed - if there's something particularly significant about the story, I'm missing it.

Would anyone care to reiterate What All The Fuss Was About?
