Fascinating take on Forelesen, Mr. Borski.

I have no idea what this magnificent story means. I took it as a fairly accurate portrait of a contemporary working man. Hell, in other words.

But this one bit seems obvious to me...

On the front of the factory into which the mustangs are being herded, Forlesen sees a picture of "a dog's head in a red triangle on a field of black." Could this be my old friend Cerberus?

Dogfood factory.

Isn't there a canned dogfood that has a similar logo? Not sure.
