Exported from an unofficial mirror of a public mailing list. Copyright in each message remains with the person who wrote it. Email addresses are obscured as `user at host`, the form the original archive published. This file was rebuilt from parsed fields rather than retained headers, so it is faithful in content but not byte-exact.

Wow, there is a ton of Native American stuff on the web! A ton of language stuff too, though clearly this is still in its infancy. Okay, I can now tell you what our names are NOT: Objibwa (Acchanabe), Cherokee, Navaho or Tundra Nenets (that's Siberian---hey, worth a try!). Couldn't access Inuit, which is my first choice or any other NA laguages, though it might be worth another try.
