Exported from an unofficial mirror of a public mailing list. Copyright in each message remains with the person who wrote it. Email addresses are obscured as `user at host`, the form the original archive published. This file was rebuilt from parsed fields rather than retained headers, so it is faithful in content but not byte-exact.

Yikes! I meant to say that I don't know as much as the publishers already know. They have manuscripts and have read them; I don't. I'm not complaining at all, just saying that I don't have any inside information whatsoever.
