vizcacha,

He doesn't say he _has_ all six issues, just the first two.

I thought I was careful in saying that he was selling issues one and two, and that he =said= the series went on to six. Then there was a lot of stuff about comic book inventory and/or expertise, which, by design or by accident, makes each phrase significantly more weighty than a toss off comment based upon "original plans" or hearsay--it makes it seem as if he has at least seen them.

But no, he does not offer the phantom issues for sale; nor does he claim to have seen them, or even know someone whose brother has one (that wonderful tag for so many urban legends); nor, for that matter, does he say that he is just repeating the original plan from circa 1991.
