Exported from an unofficial mirror of a public mailing list. Copyright in each message remains with the person who wrote it. Email addresses are obscured as `user at host`, the form the original archive published. This file was rebuilt from parsed fields rather than retained headers, so it is faithful in content but not byte-exact.

A little cross-posting. Actually that was "Cross Posting Behind."

But I like the idea of a traffic sign showing posts crossing the road.

Well now! Lookee here! We =can= have Hallowe'en in October (religious calendar locked in astronomical sense rather than seasonal) and be early Spring (where other cultures have had ghost holidays).

Naturally, this forces the Feast of Cath. A (if also locked in astronomical sense) into late Spring!

Re: Wolf Moon, here's a tidbit--Wolfe used it as a pseudonym of a genre writer in "From the Desk of Gilmer C. Merton."
