I have spotted our alga on today's noon news on the local CBS affiliate.

The URL is:

<http://www.broadcast.com/television/kens/archive.stm>

Scroll down the page to Wednesday, Eyewitness News At Noon, to see it. The segment is only in the last two minutes of the broadcast, so move the slider over to about the 24-minute mark, unless you want to watch all of the news broadcast.

Wow, it's amazing that you noticed that! I can't find a slider on that version of that URL s I don't have patience for it---also since I don't have cable at home, I had to wait to see it at the office today (they repeat everything three times at CNN). It was pretty cute (not me, but the segment).
