Just for the record, I did post a some Christ-figure suggestions in one of my posts. Remember, that for Wolfe, Christians are living in imitation of Christ, so all of Wolfe's "Christ figures" are really "Christian figures."

If my post on this did not go through, I can resend it.

In your long numbered post, sent just after your server reconnected, you said specifically that you did not consider this a Christian story, and I disagreed with that. If, in another post, you changed your mind, no, it didn't go through.
