Hello there Ori,

Happy to see you are still here!

I've always been interested in reading "The Computer..." but I've never been able to find it. Is it a chapbook? Anthologized?

From our old friend "Urth-Man Extraordinary":

The Computer Iterates The Greater Trumps

"Speculative Poetry Review" 1977

THE ANTHOLOGY OF SPECULATIVE POETRY, Frazier, ,1978

PLAN(E)T ENGINEERING (1984)

BURNING WITH A VISION, Frazier, Owlswick Press, 1984

FOR ROSEMARY [United Mythologies,] (1988)

That's the list. Depending on your situation, I'm not sure which might be easier for you to obtain. FOR ROSEMARY is a chapbook all full of Wolfe's poetry, published by UM in Canada; PE has a few other poems besides the one, and a map of the Commonwealth, and an essay on Urthian things.

Happy hunting!
