From our old friend "Urth-Man Extraordinary":

The Computer Iterates The Greater Trumps
"Speculative Poetry Review" 1977
THE ANTHOLOGY OF SPECULATIVE POETRY, Frazier, ,1978
PLAN(E)T ENGINEERING (1984)
BURNING WITH A VISION, Frasier, Owlswick Press, 1984

FOR ROSEMARY [not United Mythologies, of Canada; but rather =Kerosina= of the UK] (1988)

That's the list. Depending on your situation, I'm not sure which might be easier for you to obtain. FOR ROSEMARY is a chapbook all full of Wolfe's poetry, published by Kerosina. Sold in two forms: by itself (which is how I got it, at a convention I think?), or together with Kerosina's STORIES FROM THE OLD HOTEL.

(I confused it with the chapbook by United Mythologies, "Orbital Thoughts.")

Well there, all better! Sorry for the mix-up. The Kerosina chapbook might be pretty hard to find by itself now. I don't see a copy in the latest relevant Chris Drumm Books Catalog (#126), but there are a lot of other Wolfe titles there; and a quick search on Bookfinder.com showed only a bundle w/ SFTOH, whereas (on the same) PE starts at $30 (ex library of Congress copy) and goes up to around $100 or so, I guess.
