The site I help edit, INFINITY PLUS (<http://www.infinityplus.co.uk>), is currently featuring a story by and long interview with Mary Gentle, whose work echoes John Crowley's in many ways (especially in its use of Hermetic devices and lore), and whose massive new novel, ASH: A SECRET HISTORY (4 volumes in the USA), might well appeal to admirers of both Crowley and Wolfe.

Health warnings should be applied: this weighty tome bids fair to break wrists. It may also wreck sleep patterns.

(Yeah, foolishly I read the night through and now can hardly wait to get back to it.)
