This is very last-minute, but I will be doing my "real" interview with John Crowley tomorrow, and I invite anyone who has questions to send them to me. William, I have your Edward Gorey question printed out, but Adam, I don't have your second set of questions, the one you wished you'd asked after the first set was answered. That volume of the archive is a nightmare, so if you can find and send to me, together with anything else, I'll be happy to query him. I'll be leaving my house about 9:30 tomorrow morning, so I need to get questions before that time.
