After I saw some of the postings last week about the leather-bound editions of _Claw_ and _Sword_, I called up Easton Press to order those books but I was disappointed to found out that they are no longer in stock. I was lucky enough to find an Easton Press edition of _Shadow_ in a used book store a little while ago. Does anybody know how I might be able to find copies of those books? I have to admit that I actually prefer the Easton Press editions to the first edition hardcovers, despite what Nicholson Baker says about those ostentatious, gilt, leather-bound tomes.

Also, if anyone is interested in trading any collectible Wolfe, please let me know. I have an extra copy of the 1st ed. hardcover of _Soldier of Arete_ that I could part with.
