One would think that the ship would be, in some sense, the Church, and its demi-god captain, in some sense, Christ. But that does not seem to work, ...but Chang did not strike me as very close to a Christ figure.

...So, perhaps the characters, in their eastward movement, are making a big mistake. The ship, then, would be an anti-Church, and Chang would be an anti-Christ. The characters need to turn

Not having read the story, is it the Ship of Fools?
