Here's a movie I think would appeal to many on this list. It's an artist's (An Lee) approach to genre material, in this case the chop-sockie Hong Kong flick. God knows it's not everybody's cuppa--the person I went with hated it--but I think it's ours. The last time a movie was touted here was last spring's "Gladiator," and I think that, in a very different way, was also worthy. Check it out.
