3. The dialect gets impenetrable at the worst possible moment
- what do "groose" and "gawnt" mean?

Here's my translation:

"Was a grouse"

(no that doesn't make sense)

"not like you. I say, you will not ever grunt over me again"

(reference to the president's sexual relation with copperhead?) "those boys, the one kills the other. I do nothing"

(cain and abel reference? why?)

What's with the barking trees and winding ram's horns?

I assume that's just Wolfe's way of saying "he's a in a very weird cognate of our reality."

"And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." John 8:32

I reckon:

"Vhas a groose."

"Was a Gross" - with reference to there first sexual encounter or her initial emergence on earth

"Nawt lak 'ou. Aw zay, 'ou vhill nawt neffer grawnt offer mee agan."

"Not like you. I say, you will not never[?] grunt[?] over me again."

i Pretty much agree with this.

She no longer likes him, and is saying he will not get the opportunity to copulate with her again.

The impression is she has a very child like mentality and is trying to hurt the president before he relegates her back to her previous existence (or another)

"Dhoss bhoyes, de vhun keels de odder. Aw douh nawthing."

"Those boys, the one kills the other. I do nothing."president,

Have no idea what this is in reference to. I like the idea of Caine and Abel, but there is nothing to corroborate this idea.

Based on the opinion that she is an incarnation of Eve and the serpent , I was of the opinion that the President became Adam in the other realm. If Caine and Abel is right then this is after the original sin, and Adam or (God) has just found Eve or the serpent guilty of yet another act of sin.

and that she doesn't like him, and he will no longer
