... what to read till the next Gene Wolfe book comes?

(And by the way, does anyone -- Wombat, this question has your name written all over it -- know what he's working on now? "The Book of the Old Sun?" "Island of the Death Doctor?" "The Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Heads of Cerberus?" "By the Pricking of my Thumbs?" "Paradise Misplaced?" -- there's another topic, "titles for fictional Wolfe books...")

SOLDIER OF SIDON! SOLDIER OF SIDON! SOLDIER OF SIDON!

-Rostrum

P.S. Pretty please?

According to Robert Borski, Wolfe's next project is a complete-in-one-volume Big Fat Fantasy Novel (around 1100 pages) with the title The Wizard Knight. That is literally all I know about it. I don't believe he has delivered it to Hartwell yet; David usually mentions such things to me just to see me writhe in pain.

Soldier in Sidon is apparently next in the queue after that. I want Wolfe to write an Oz novel.

I've never heard of Soldier in Sidon, so I went searching just now on Amazon, and it came back with six items, none with the title in question. So, could someone please give some information on this book for me?

Thanks Much,

Darryl

Long-awaited third volume in the "Latro" series (_Soldier of the Mist_, _Soldier of Arete_).
