I can easily accept that a non AH Germany would be nationalistic and anti-Semitic; I find it hard to believe that it would be so impractically idealistic as to do more than rob and mistreat worker-units of the low-status groups; that would be a waste of good worker-units. Devoting precious rail-transport bandwidth and army/police time to extermination just weakens the State.

As many have observed, the Soviet Union is the obvious example of how a nationanlistic, totalitarian, anti-Semitic country treats its Jews and Gypsies if the Leader isn't an idealist: it's not nice, but it's not a Holocaust.
