Re: Joshua A. Solomon's question on recent the S&SF Wolfe story... It's "The Man in the Pepper Mill" in the Oct/Nov issue of last year. I don't recall a refernce to God's fingers, although the phrase sounds familiar. It's a very sweet, cute story, but also a very Wolfe story. While scanning over it looking for the Holy Digit reference, I kept thinking about mantis' post about Plato's cave. There's some of onion-layered reality.

I've set it on my bedside table to read tonight, so I'll let you know whether or not Gods fingers are mentioned.
