I posted earlier today and glossed over a few ideas from the Kabbalah. I really know nothing about that study, but for anyone interested here is a link to a site which gives references to historic works. <http://www.yashanet.com/studies/revstudy/background.htm>

It has to be a better introduction than another I found which described Yesod "(A) good place to visit if you are bored or lack direction in life. The energy here will stir your unconscious energies that then could mysteriously propel you into something new."
