Blind Ultan's library may allude to Alexandria (I suspect it doth), but is primarily Blind Borges's library in Buenos Aires. (Note the Borgesian intro to the series: I found this ms and translated it....).

Borges influenced Wolfe in another way. In his Encyclopaedia of Imaginary Creatures Borges speaks of a world beyond the mirror that plans invasion on our world. The first sign of such invasion shall be _a fish that appears in a mirror_. Also, a beast much like an alzabo is described in that book.
