Exported from an unofficial mirror of a public mailing list. Copyright in each message remains with the person who wrote it. Email addresses are obscured as `user at host`, the form the original archive published. This file was rebuilt from parsed fields rather than retained headers, so it is faithful in content but not byte-exact.

Hello everyone.

Looking for some help, here. In going back through the archives, I've seen reference to a chat session that Gene Wolfe did back in 1997 with People Magazine. The website given for the chat transcript is no longer accurate, and I was wondering if anybody has the transcript saved off in a Word document or something like and might be willing to either post it to the list or e-mail it to me directly. I sure would appreciate it.
