This isn't the point.

Marc feels uncomfortable and doesn't want to say.

You can make a case for saying he shouldn't have opened his [virtual] mouth about it. Whatever.

I met Gene Wolfe at WorldCon and I had a number of conversations with him.

I was invited to tell everyone about them and decided that I didn't want to. Not because I think Gene Wolfe would mind; I am sure he wouldn't care.

But I mind. So I am not going to.
