Severian isn't Jesus, despite demonstrable similarities in their stories. Silk isn't Moses; hell, he actually got to the promised land.

Crush jabs:

No! no! no! QUETZAL is Moses!

Bwa-ha-ha-ha!

Some readers see what they want to see and disregard anything in the text that is not convenient to their theories as attributable to opinionated but ignorant characters or disingenuous narrators, even when said individuals are the authors of the entire text, including those parts on which their theories were founded.

Crush offers:

Some? I don't know of anyone's hands that are clean on this point.
