Exported from an unofficial mirror of a public mailing list. Copyright in each message remains with the person who wrote it. Email addresses are obscured as `user at host`, the form the original archive published. This file was rebuilt from parsed fields rather than retained headers, so it is faithful in content but not byte-exact.

I was just over at the People Online area and it looks like transcripts are available from there, to answer your question to Ranjit.

(I won't be able to be there, either, but I look forward to the transcript!)
