One more thing. Delaney is indeed covered in hair, or at least he was two weeks ago. Baldy seems to me a perfectly logical contraction of Baldanders--why should it refer to hair? And how does Baldy relate to Delaney (who is short, and by now quite rotund)? I've always thought of him as Northern European in flavor, what with his troll-like aspects and that Gothic castle.

Excuse me, when you've been doing qabalah for thirty-five years you take some wierd things for granted:

Baldanders Baldy

Ba d rs
ldan e y

Bad SR Delany

Now, like I've said, I am not particularly passionately attached to this little puzzle, and I put the whole thing forward as much as a wry comment on the wrangling over minutiae which, in my opinion, badly infests this list at the possible expense of serious discussion as for any other reason.

But I think there is actually better evidence for it than for most of the similar wrangling that does go on much of the time.
