Exported from an unofficial mirror of a public mailing list. Copyright in each message remains with the person who wrote it. Email addresses are obscured as `user at host`, the form the original archive published. This file was rebuilt from parsed fields rather than retained headers, so it is faithful in content but not byte-exact.

With so little discussion going on about Wolfe's works lately, I been free to wool-gather over the Urth list.

Will the old list be merged into this one on make searches easier?

Will the "lost time" of the last year ever make the archives?
