Not pearls before swine... I sew seeds or beans.
Google often misleads... which is why I approach it cautiously and check and cross-check.
Inspired by you and Borski and many others here, I do intend to fashion a web-site to pursue these matters.
I lurked a long time here to read what others had said and many of the ideas have been developing within me for many years, but I did not want to reveal what was obvious to others.
I try to indicate which associations I feel are just fortuitous... but if anyone here dare ask GW how much AoGG influenced 5HOC, I would bet $100 dollars that his answer would surprise you.

Geneva I do believe is a very symbolic city to Gene, but as soon as he mentions it, he also makes reference to all the major European cities and a few more besides. Rome was a no-brainer, but the reference to Tower Bridge made me grin. (John Wolfe-Barry)

La Musee D'Orsay is also worth a visit. Whistler...
Swann ... what is the french for Foxfire?
Dublin has been mentioned too many times already and Vienna (probably) and Prague.
