Exported from an unofficial mirror of a public mailing list. Copyright in each message remains with the person who wrote it. Email addresses are obscured as `user at host`, the form the original archive published. This file was rebuilt from parsed fields rather than retained headers, so it is faithful in content but not byte-exact.

To avoid fouling up this list with my somewhat unorthodox speculations regarding this book I have taken the advice given me and created a webpage to explore these ideas at my own pace. It is very much a work in progress, but I would be happy to discuss any issues related to the content. Except for the sections where the style of the site changes, those bits are not my work!
