Exported from an unofficial mirror of a public mailing list. Copyright in each message remains with the person who wrote it. Email addresses are obscured as `user at host`, the form the original archive published. This file was rebuilt from parsed fields rather than retained headers, so it is faithful in content but not byte-exact.

Shadows of the New Sun has been explained (by its editor) in this very mailing list:

It seems to be the essays from "Castle of the Otter" with bonus tracks.

Hmm. That's a good explanation- Liverpool could simply have dropped from their site, and it comes from the horse's mouth, so to speak, But, "also features Gene Wolfe in Conversation and one or two other gems." I've never heard of that. Was it in Castle of Days?
