Gene Wolfe told me a few weeks ago that SOLDIER OF SIDON was complete and with his agent. That could mean publication in late 2006, with any luck. He confirmed a fourth, concluding novel in the series is planned.

His next novel after SOLDIER OF SIDON, though, will be PIRATE FREEDOM, which already exists in penultimate draft. It's an historical fantasy.

At the moment, GW is concentrating on short fiction--he's sold two further stories to POSTSCRIPTS, which I deputy-edit, and has written a long story for a Dozois anthology. A novella is in planning.

Well, that's excellent, except I guess it means now I'll have to wait for book 4, for clues as to what the hell was going on in books 1 & 2 :)
