David Herter is a good Wolfean writer: his novel CERES STORM in particular recalls GW. The small press for which I work, PS Publishing, will be issuing two of his novellas, ON THE OVERGROWN PATH and THE LUMINOUS DEPTHS, the first later this year. OTOP is distinctly Lupine in technique, involving the composer Leos Janacek and a strange chthonic mystery in the mountains of Slovakia.

Actually, this immediately sounds Tim Powers-ish to me.

Not that that's a bad thing!
