Exported from an unofficial mirror of a public mailing list. Copyright in each message remains with the person who wrote it. Email addresses are obscured as `user at host`, the form the original archive published. This file was rebuilt from parsed fields rather than retained headers, so it is faithful in content but not byte-exact.

So, did the idea of a Lupine Wiki fall apart or what?

Umm... At the risk of being repetitive, there already is an (under-used) Wolfe wiki. I set one up at:

It's not great but it has the advantage of existing.
