Thought that this site might be of interest to the group. I tried "trig" and "pelagic" and the site didn't fail me. FYI.

Chances are you've got at least one dictionary lying around the house or office--probably in your native language. But did you know you also have quick access to more than 400 dictionaries of more than 130 different languages? All you have to do is point your Web browser to Bucknell University's Web of Online Dictionaries page. Here, you'll find links to dictionaries of languages from Afrikaans to Xhosa. In fact, this site is so thorough that you can even find dictionaries of made-up languages, such as Klingon.
