I got my copy of _Soldier of Sidon_ yesterday at Borders in Palo Alto, California. I'm only four chapters in so far, but everything so far is encouraging. It's written in Wolfe's smoothest style: so far, I haven't had to re-scan any paragraphs unless I enjoyed them.

If you liked the down-to-earth, realistic portrayal of the Athenians and other Hellenes in the first two _Soldier_ books, you'll probably like the Phoenicians and Egyptians in this one.

Happy reading!
