Which is what we fans of Patrick O'Brian say to ourselves, or to each other, when something good happens.

For me, that would be finding "A Walking Tour of the Shambles". Even better, it is signed not by one, or two, but all three of the participants! My first autographs from Wolfe and Gaiman, my second from the utterly wonderful Gahan Wilson (I was lucky enough to meet him once and he is as funny in person as he is with his drawings).

Good stuff.

A very funny book. If you don't know Chicago (which I don't) it's fun trying to "find" the area using Google Earth.
