And have we heard anything new on Wolfe's other projects? I recall hearing about a few other novels he was working on?

When I spoke to Wolfe at the Locus event in Seattle last year, he said he was making progress on a third novel (after Pirate Freedom and Evil Guest, and which Mantis later told me was to be titled _Sorcerer's House_) about a confidence man who is released from jail and goes to buy an old house in the country, offering to do the work of renovating it in exchange for a deal on the price. His offer is accepted in accordance with the will left by the former owner, a dead sorcerer, a will which mentions the man by name. The novel is told in the form of letters to the man's twin brother and to his former prison cell mate.
