There was a post about the cover art for Wolfe's new book some time back, but it seems to have changed. I think the new art looks pretty great, nice retro feel, though not being one of the lucky few advance readers, I can't say how well it fits the book.

Also - I wonder if there's a connection with J.S. Le Fanu's story The Evil Guest? Le Fanu isn't THAT obscure, and his Carmilla is still fairly well-known, one of the key vampire novels, etc.

Here's the Le Fanu story at Project Gutenberg:
