Hi-

I was wondering if anyone on this list knows if Gene Wolfe has read "This Craft of Verse (The Charles Elliot Norton Lectures)" which is a transcription of 6 lectures that Jorge Luis Borges gave at Harvard back in 1967-1968?

Mr. Wolfe has given me a lot of reading pleasure over the years and I wanted to send him something by way of thanks, (in addition to simply buying his books.)?

The lectures did not come into print until about 2000. They are remarkable for the range of material Borges referred to in various languages, from memory.

Regards,

John France

John,

I have it from the horse's mouth that Gene Wolfe has "never heard of this."

I feel certain he would be most appreciative of such a gift.

Patrick - I've wanted to write Mr. Wolfe for some time: do you have a snail-mail address for him? I promise not to abuse it!
