well, mamelta and kypris both have blue eyes. I found on page 220 of epiphany of the long sun "he danced with kypris, who was hyacinth and Mother, too." which can either mean she really is Mother with blue eyes or she is love as mother is love - intentionally ambiguous. on page 208 we know "the monarch wanted a son to succeed him." and this is probably not one of his existing bad brood but a bright sun with his mistress of love.

on page 226 his father is tall and blue eyed and the woman who does not speak also shows up. the old calde did not have blue eyes.

I am trying to find if kypris and mamelta are identified together in another dream sequence.
