Exported from an unofficial mirror of a public mailing list. Copyright in each message remains with the person who wrote it. Email addresses are obscured as `user at host`, the form the original archive published. This file was rebuilt from parsed fields rather than retained headers, so it is faithful in content but not byte-exact.

Something seems to be off on the Urth.net site. Take two example searches, one done manually on Google and one done through the little searchbox. The searchbox one turns up no results, but the manual one does.

<http://www.google.com/search?q=gwern+site%3Aurth.net> turns up a good 66 results, but http://www.google.com/search?as_sitesearch=www.urth.net&as_q=gwern ?

0. It does seem to work if one modifies it to read 'site:urth.net' or 'site:http://www.urth.net'.

Anyone know what's going on there?
