Since we're on the topic, I'd just like to say that I would pay for a well-done t-shirt with the slogan "Silk for Calde" scrawled across it. Maybe with the silhouette of a man and a bird. Something very graffi-esque, like the "Che" shirts you'll see people wear. I've often thought of making (or, since I'm not that artist, having someone make) shirts like this to take to a sci-fi convention. They could be complimented with "Severian for Autarch" shirts, though it doesn't quite have the same ring. I know someone a while back posted a "Silk for Calde" bumpersticker pattern.

Good idea.

a dude on that new genewolfebookclub board said he had one made at one of those one-off shirt places.

Now you've tempted me to design an image for it.

I'd imagined silhouette as well, but since you mentioned Che, I'm tempted to put some facial details in there.

I picture Silk to look like that actor Hugh Laurie. I've never seen his show or watched him act, but I've seen his mug. anyone have an other suggestions?

on that note, maybe we should start a "fantasy casting" thread.

I've been casting actors from all ages into the roles of BotNS. Since my motives are for illustrations and not a movie (shudder) I've been casting from any era. I'd be interested in what others would think, though it should be it's own thread I suppose. As a teaser, I'll say I like a young Sigourney Weaver as Thecla and an OLD Clint Eastwood as Malrubius.

I seem to remember Silk being considerably younger than Hugh Laurie when he was first Cald?. Someone young, slender, and very fair. Take your image of Severian and create a photo-negative out of it.

What fun! A young Keanu Reeves for Severian?

yeah, Silk is 23.

Laurie is now too old.

Keanu does come to mind, but I'd have to reject him on principle :D and he's already been cast as a messiah.

I don't watch movies or tv enough to be good at this though. I can only think of household name actors.

Based on Remora's words, Silk is not a slight figure. I would say Dolf Lungren would be a better casting choice.

Do we have room for Liam Neeson anywhere?

I thought Malrubius was rather fat ...
