Yesterday, I wrote:

I see that a new Wolfe story, "Donovan Sent Me," is due to come out in Other Earths, edited by our own Nick Gevers.

Oops. That should be "Donovan Sent Us."

As John Barach says, the anthology Other Earths, edited by yours truly and Jay Lake, due out on April 9 as a mass market paperback from DAW Books, contains a new story by Gene Wolfe: "Donovan Sent Us". OE is an alternate-history antho, and Gene's contribution is splendidly sinister. Nazi America sends a spy to German-occupied Britain, and said spy must act German--or perhaps become German...

Other rather Wolfean tales in the book are by Paul Park and Theodora Goss. Lucius Shepard fans should note his original novella, "Dog-Eared Paperback of My Life".
