Peter,

We don't allow for spoilers here--in other words we simply assume that everyone has read everything, and let the unwary reader beware. What you found in "Suzanne"--I assume it's different from mantis's discovery of the Proust connection (which was amazing enough!)--do tell.

Tony,

Thanks very much for those covers, which really are superior to the downright comic-strip-oid US covers. What about -Urth-? That had a plain brown cover here (Hartwell, and with him Wolfe, having changed houses), but I would assume they all came out from one house in the UK and would have matching covers. I would love to see even a part of an artist's conception of that ship sailing the stars!
