I would recommend highly to any Wolfe fan who hasn't already read them _Engine Summer_, _Little, Big_, _Aegypt_, _Love and Sleep_, and "Great Work of Time" (in the collection _Novelty_, and also published separately IIRC) by John Crowley. But be warned that _Aegypt_ and _Love and Sleep_ are the first two parts of a tetralogy (though IMO _Aegypt_ can be read perfectly well as a standalone novel).

I'd also recommend _Through the Heart_ by Richard Grant. (Has anyone read his two more recent novels? I've never seen _Tex and Molly_ in a library, and his latest didn't look that appealing to me.
