This morning, I found a copy on the sidewalk. I'd just been asking around in a few local used bookstores, too. Must have been placed there by a time-traveling philanthropist.

My favorite of his books. Congratulations.

Congrats, Allan! Thanks for sharing! Always glad to hear about my favourite author (and one of Gene Wolfe's favourites).

Dan'I, that's very interesting that it's your favourite book by Laff. I love it too, but I find a lot of fans more dubious, especially about the first novella, 'Where Have You Been, Sandalotis?'. I thinks it's amazing.

(I wish there was an 'urthlist' equivalent for discussion of Lafferty's works!)
