I have now printed up the second issue of my fanzine/newsletter on Gene Wolfe.

Since the net is non-commercial (and rightly so) I won't offer it for money here (it usually costs $2). Instead, anyone who's interested can obtain a copy for "the usual," this is fanspeak for a trade with your zine or a letter of comment telling me what you think about it when you get it. Or, if you're really a dedicated wolverphile, by sending me an article.

If you would like a copy under these terms send me email with your snail mail address.

Issue no. 2 discusses the second third of Soldier_of_the_Mist, has a medieval version of the legend of St. Katharine (the basis for some of The_Book_of_the_New_Sun) "A Reader's Warm and Temperate Love for Gene" plus general news and four pages of readers' letters.

I enjoyed your #1. Why not do like Chuq and go electronic? Surely it would guarantee you a larger audience and cut your postal costs.
