Having recently read Soldier of the Mist, I am sure there must be more coming. Is this part of a series and if so, what's next? My son and I can't wait. Thanks for any help.

Soldier of Arete is out in paperback. It's the second volume of those "memories" (a rather appropriate term in this case). It may also end the series, unless Wolfe chooses to follow his protagonist back to Latium.

Quite a triumph of intelligent writing. Not necessarily _the_ faithful rendition of the past, but at least not marred by imbecilic concessions to the mindset of the present day audience.

'Soldier of Arrete' (I think I spelled the last word wrong) was released about a month or so ago. I can't give an opinion on it yet, since it's still on my 'read before the end of the interglacial' pile of books.
