IGJ, in Fava's second story she implies she was born not long before Horn's leader (Horn?) walked by. If that was Fava how can she be "much older" as some have implied here when explaining how she learned to write, etc. She is only a few years old according to this story.

Or...is there an alternative explanation. Did Fava enter and change Horn's story (as we heard it) like Horn did to Fava's story earlier. Is that what was going on when she told the story one way (I talked to the leader) and Horn corrected/changed? it later (saying it shook the baby inhuma and forced it to speak "Mee", etc.)?

The trees?

OBW p.82 Mention of trees/inhumi connection?

IGJ p.124 The trees leaned closer and wept?

What is the Green trees to inhumi connection?

And just noticed again how much i LOVE Oreb!!

p.105 is a perfect example. "Bird shade"

He makes me laugh so often. I really mourned and didn't fully enjoy "Exodus From the Long Sun" because Oreb seemed to be supplanted by that talking cat creature (yuck). <grin>.
