I'd like to see a neat little chart
But I'm not meticulous enough to construct it.
Someone here could certainly do it.

4 rows to the the chart

row 1 = a chronology of the events of the narrative in chronological sequence* row 2 = nominates the narrator is of each of event row 3 = status of protagonist: Horn Silk-Horn Silk row 4 = where Silk is at this time point (multiple places - but specific)

Did I miss anything useful to note?

* = (but when to put Urth events in sequence?)

Anyway - I've been finding it useful to think about lots of folks questions and comments relating to the flawed version of this chart in my imagination.
